

Security and International Relations Programme

Department of Politics and International Relations
University of Westminster

From Global to Primal: The Devolution of Security Studies

Professor James Der Derian

Watson Institute for International Studies, Brown University

Wednesday 9 June
5.00-6.30 pm

Pavilion Lecture Theatre, 115 New Cavendish Street, London W1W 6UW

Followed by a Reception and a Book Launch of recent books published within the Department

ALL WELCOME

We are delighted to welcome James Der Derian to open the Security and International Programme within the Department of Politics and International Relations. All are welcome to attend an all-day seminar on Wednesday 10 June which will show-case the research undertaken within the new programme.

James Der Derian is author most recently of Virtuous War: Mapping the Military-Industrial-Media-Entertainment Network, whose second edition was released by Routledge in 2009, and of Critical Practices in International Theory (Routledge, 2009). He has produced two film documentaries with Udris Film, Virtual Y2K and After 9/11. A third, Human Terrain, is soon to be released and won the Audience Award at the November 2009 Festival dei Popoli in Florence.

RSVP to Suzy Robson s.robson@westminster.ac.uk

For more information please contact Roland Dannreuther r.dannreuther@westminster.ac.uk

Department of Politics and International Relations
University of Westminster

Inauguration of the Security and International Relations Programme
9-10 June 2010

Wednesday 9 June

Opening Lecture

“From Global to Primal: the Devolution of Security Studies”

James Der Derian, Watson Institute for International Studies, Brown University

5.00-6.30 Pavilion Lecture Room, University of Westminster, 115 New Cavendish Street, London, W1W 6UW followed by reception and book launch

Thursday 10 June

Panels dedicated to research undertaken within the Security and International Relations programme

Room 358, 309 Regent Street, University of Westminster

9.30-11.0 Intervention and State-Building

Aidan Hehir and David Chandler with intervention from Tony Lang, University of St Andrews

11.30-13.00 Borders and Identities

Dibyesh Anand and Patricia Hogwood with intervention from Stuart Elden, University of Durham

13.00-14.00 Lunch

14.00-15.30 Energy, Security and International Relations

Roland Dannreuther and Wojciech Ostrowski with intervention from Gavin Bridge, University of Manchester

16.00-17.30 Securities and Their Subjects

Roundtable with David Chandler, Tom Moore and Tara McCormack, University of Leicester and Julian Reid, King's College London and University of Lapland

Please RSVP to Suzy Robson – s.robson@westminster.ac.uk

For more information please contact Roland Dannreuther – r.dannreuther@westminster.ac.uk