Ontopolitics in the Anthropocene
An Introduction to Mapping, Sensing and Hacking

David Chandler, Centre for the Study of Democracy, University of Westminster.

Series: Critical Issues in Global Politics

The Anthropocene captures more than a debate over how to address the problems of climate change and global warming. Increasingly, it is seen to signify the end of the modern condition itself and potentially to open up a new era of political possibilities. This is the first book to look at the new forms of governance emerging in the epoch of the Anthropocene. Forms of rule, which seek to govern without the handrails of modernist assumptions of ‘command and control’ from the top-down; taking on board new ontopolitical understandings of the need to govern on the grounds of non-linearity, complexity and entanglement.
